HINDUSTAN INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME

Hindustan College of Arts & Science, a leading institution, since 1995, is located in the IT corridor in a lush green campus near Muttukadu lake in South of Chennai. Students from India and several other countries do their Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Research programmes in our institution.

The primary objective of the programme is to explore the richness of South Indian Culture and Tradition for the overseas students. It covers a wide range of dimensions such as language, culture, food, tradition and historical heritage. The students develop diverse cultural awareness and expand their international understanding which enables them to widen their knowledge in a global perspective.

The duration of the programme is three weeks, within which we provide students ample opportunities to enhance their knowledge by visiting various places of South India. The students undergoing this internship programme will be given two credits. The students will get the opportunity to foster friendship with students of HCAS which will lead to international understanding in the global scenario.
